

My husband, James B. Putt, and I have registered our home phone and two cell phones on the "no call list." We have been extremely happy with the elimination of solicitations, etc. and urge the State of Indiana to continue the program as it is, without federal intervention.

Pamela D. Putt